

MAYMESTER 2015

War Studies and the Anglo-American Strategic Tradition

KING'S COLLEGE LONDON DEPARTMENT OF WAR STUDIES

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS CLEMENTS CENTER FOR HISTORY, STRATEGY, AND STATECRAFT

PROGRAMME DIRECTORS AND COURSE CONVENERS: Professor Michael Rainsborough and Dr John Bew

PROGRAMME ADMINISTRATOR: Hillary Briffa

ASSISTANT TEACHER: Alexander Hitchens

OVERVIEW

- This course will consist of 14 classes of 3 hours each
- For class, students will be expected to:
 - o Read one or two items of required reading;
 - o Prepare for participation in class and work in teams to debate and discuss;
 - o Keep a daily journal reflecting on the major themes and questions arising from the lectures, readings, and field trips to be handed in on the last day of the programme;
 - Seven response papers summarizing the readings and posing one or two discussion questions. In some instances, instructors will direct students to use these exercises for specific purposes geared to the goals of a particular seminar. These papers (approximately one page) are due at the beginning of the relevant seminar. More information regarding this means of assessment will be communicated in due course.
- All readings for class will be circulated to students before the course begins.
